

Info Security Products Guide names FusionVM Winner of the 2008 Global Excellence in Managed Security Service Award

FusionVM gains the highest trust of customers worldwide

February 13, 2008 - (Santa Clara, California) – Critical Watch announced today that Info Security Products Guide, a Silicon Valley Communications publication and the world's leading publication on security-related products and technologies, has named FusionVM a winner of the 2008 Global Product Excellence in Managed Security Service Customer Trust Award. This customer trust honor is the greatest endorsement to the fact that FusionVM is ahead of the curve when it comes to the best-of-the-best products that can provide the highest security in risk management and compliance.

Winners were honored in the heart of Silicon Valley at an award ceremony held during Technosium 2008 Conference and Expo which is supported by Silicon Valley Communications, San Jose Mercury News - The Newspaper of Silicon Valley, Wi-Fi Alliance, Trusted Computing Group, Information Security Professionals Association, Info Security Products Guide, Personal Broadband Industry Association, Covenant, Wireless Communications Alliance, Info Security Products Guide, Stanford Graduate School of Business and Smart Capitol Venture (SCV Network). FusionVM is risk and vulnerability management service that goes beyond just scanning and tracking vulnerabilities to provide a powerful, enterprise business process platform that integrates and automates the lifecycle from policy to compliance validation in a way that is uniquely optimized to match business needs. Its appliance-based architecture enables rapid deployment and scalability. FusionVM MSP (Managed Service Provider) adds multi-tenant architecture to enable MSSPs, IT Outsourcers, or Audit and Consulting firms to manage multiple separate entities on the same service platform.

“It's time for technology companies to focus on innovation and growth now,” says Rake Narang, Editor-in-Chief of Network Products Guide. “Product innovation and customer trust are key to trouncing global economy uncertainties in 2008. We are pleased to honor FusionVM from Critical Watch as winner for 2008 and all the finalists who participated.”
