

Info Security Products Guide Names Critical Watch Winner of the 2009 Global Excellence Award in Two Categories

FusionVM gains the highest trust of customers worldwide as Security Solution for Enterprise (Medium) & Vulnerability Assessment/Remediation

April 21, 2009 – (Dallas, Texas) Critical Watch announced today that Info Security Products Guide, the industry's leading publication on security-related products and technologies has named FusionVM a winner of the "2009 Global Product Excellence Customer Trust Award" in two categories. This customer-bestowed honor recognizes that FusionVM is ahead of the curve when it comes to the best-of-the-best products that can provide the highest security in Security Solution for Enterprise and Vulnerability Assessment/Remediation.

FusionVM is a patented solution for risk and vulnerability management. It also enables a sustainable, automated process for managing and maintaining compliance. Features include asset discovery and management, security and configuration policy scanning, vulnerability assessment, exceptions management, remediation workflow, risk and compliance reporting.

"In an interconnected world threats have no boundaries and security has to remain a prime requirement," says Rake Narang, editor-in-chief of Info Security Products Guide. "We are pleased to honor FusionVM as winner for 2009."

"Info Security Products Guide's recognition of FusionVM further validates our product as excellence-in-class and forward thinking," said Critical Watch President and CEO David Laizerovich. "Customer Trust is of the utmost importance to every one of us in our company and we strongly believe customer satisfaction is the key to our success."
